

2019-2020 Executive Committee Nominees

Officers

AARON JONES – CHAIRMAN (EXISTING)

Bank of New Zealand

Aaron stepped into the role of Chairman in 2015, after the resignation of the long-serving Stuart Palmer. Aaron was well-prepared for the role, having already served for several years as the Treasurer and as a Committee Member.

Until recently Aaron was the Manager of the BNZ's Manukau retail branch, but has now moved back to his first love, commercial lending. Aaron is a Senior Business Partner based at Highbrook, covering the Manukau area. He has over 30 years of experience within the banking industry, and greatly enjoys interacting with a wide range of business owners.

RACHEL DARLINGTON – TREASURER (EXISTING)

Business Like (NZ) Ltd

Rachel is a Chartered Accountant (CA) and a member of Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand. She also holds a current certificate of public practice. Rachel completed a Bachelor of Commerce degree at Auckland University and post graduate diploma in Professional Accounting at Manukau Institute of Technology. She began her accountancy career in the corporate arena whilst working for a merchant banking firm for ten years. Since then Rachel has worked as a chartered accountant and business advisor specializing in small to medium sized businesses. Business Like NZ Limited is a forward focused chartered accountancy practice that has been serving local Manukau businesses for many years.

Committee

EMILY MAY (EXISTING)

Jaedon Enterprises

Emily May is the Managing Director at Jaedon Enterprises Ltd, a New Zealand based clothing manufacturer, specializing in technical garments, servicing the needs of high-risk industries and emergency response teams. Jaedon is a family owned business that was established 20 years ago by Emily's father. Jaedon has an established local and international client base and dominates the market for high-specification industrial apparel, providing innovative design solutions, customer service, and an understanding of local and international compliance requirements. Emily champions New Zealand-made, and local innovation. She is interested in engaging younger generations in manufacturing within NZ, particularly in the apparel sector.

STEPHEN GREY (EXISTING)

Chester Grey Accountants

Stephen is well-known for his continuous commitment to the growth of small to medium-sized businesses over the last 20 years. He has been serving as a local body politician since the early 1980s. He is a founder member of the NZICA Business Development Specialists Group and frequently presents seminars on business development topics. He brings a wide network of contacts to Business Manukau.

MARK SMITH (EXISTING)

Briscoes Retail Group

Mark is the Retail Business Manager for Briscoes Group where he has worked for just over 4 years. Previously he was with The Warehouse Group running their number one turnover store at $41m per year in the South Island. He was Chairman of the Board for Slough Town Against Crime (STAC). This was a group of retail companies and local authorities formed to help fight against crime in the community, and to support homeless street drinkers and drug takers by bringing all the local community units together to communicate as one. His hobby is repairing and restoration of European cars and motorbikes, old Vespas and his jaguar MK7m 1955 project.

KAREN CRABB (EXISTING)

Rainbow's End

Karen is the CEO at Rainbow's End. She started her career in media and advertising in NZ & London, before joining Lion NZ. During her 16 years with Lion she advanced across several roles, including Marketing, Sales, Manufacturing, People & Culture, Strategy and Retail, before settling into general management. Karen is passionate about working with people and businesses to build thriving communities.
